Invergarry Attractions, Activities, Amenities

11 "The Battle of the Shirts"
Fought at the head of Loch Lochy on July 15th 1544. This conflict was so named since the day being so hot the opposing clans discarded their plaids, fighting only in their shirts.

12 Bridge of Oich
Designed in 1854 by James Dredge this cantilever bridge over the River Oich was used up to 1932. Today traffic goes over the Caledonian Canal at the nearby Aberchalder swing bridge.

13 & 14 Glengarry Community Hall & Shinty Pitch
The Hall houses a permanent exhibition open Easter to October and the local public toilets. The local Highland Games are held on the shinty pitch the first Saturday in July each year.
